

RCare Mobile, Winner for Mobile Star Awards

For Immediate Release:

Webster, NY. December 17, 2018

RCare, Inc., maker of wireless nurse call and monitoring solutions, is pleased to announce that RCare Mobile has been chosen as the “Best Healthcare Mobile Innovation App” in the 17th annual Mobile Star Awards™ program, hosted by the mobile events and news site MobileVillage.com. In addition, RCare was awarded second place in the Innovative Mobile Emergency Alerts & Response category.

RCare Mobile is a Caregiver Notification tool designed exclusively for senior housing staff and caregivers. Available for iOS or Android, the RCare Mobile app makes caregiving tasks more efficient and responsive. Completely encrypted and HIPAA-compliant, the RCare Mobile app enables on-the-go caregiving, staff-staff and staff-resident communications. The convenient “I got it” button allows caregivers to claim calls, eliminating duplication of effort, and ensuring accountability that every call is answered promptly. Using NFC technology, RCare Mobile prompts caregivers to check in at point-of-care and log services, for more accurate billing and staffing.

“RCare Mobile brings the power of smartphone technology to the caregiving environment, but without social distractions and security risks,” said RCare CEO, Myron Kowal. “We wanted to make caregivers feel connected, secure and empowered, which we know will improve the overall quality of care.”

Since 2001, the Mobile Star Awards program has showcased the best and most innovative consumer and business mobile apps, mobile devices, mobile technology companies, and success stories. Nominees and winners are chosen by the mobile-savvy followers of MobileVillage.com.

“Winning a Mobile Star Award is an accomplishment that’s recognized by the entire mobile industry, customers and buyers,” says MobileVillage Founder and CEO Jon Covington. “Mobile Star Awards winners and nominees truly stand out and shine among millions of other mobile products as the greatest innovators and stars.”
